Emerging Scholars Colloquium (Conference Panel in Grainau) #NWFGRAINAU24

Organized by the Emerging Scholars Forum (NWF/ESF) of the Association for Canadian Studies in German-Speaking Countries (GKS)

As part of “Borders – Migration – Mobility:” 45th Annual Conference of the Association for Canadian Studies in German-Speaking Countries (GKS)

Grainau (Germany), Hotel am Badersee, February 16-18, 2024

Deadline for submissions: October 20, 2023

The Emerging Scholars Colloquium will take place as an in-person conference panel at the Annual Conference of the GKS and offers emerging scholars a platform to share and discuss their ongoing research projects with peers and experts from various disciplines in Canadian Studies (including Quebec Studies). Submission may discuss work in progress on a BA or MA thesis, an early draft of a PhD project proposal, an excerpt from a (planned) dissertation chapter or any other current research project in or with a strong emphasis on Canadian Studies. Disciplines can include, but are not limited to, Language, Literature and Culture in Anglophone and Francophone Canada, Women*, Gender and Queer Studies, Geography and Economics, History, Political Science, Sociology, and Indigenous and Cultural Studies. The Emerging Scholars Colloquium encourages transdisciplinary and comparative perspectives that work on the Americas with a clear connection to Canada. Applicants may wish to address theory, methodology or content of their ongoing research; all research aspects and angles are welcome. The submissions do not have to engage with the particular thematic focus of “Borders – Migration – Mobility.”

To ensure that the exchange between emerging scholars, peers and experts is as productive as possible, the emphasis will be on the dialogue between participants and attendees. As such, we invite proposals for brief 10-15-minute presentations of the main project ideas. This presentation should also raise those key challenges that participants are currently facing and that they want to discuss in the 15-20 minutes following their presentation. This focused exchange is intended to allow participants to gain insightful new perspectives on their projects.

Proposals should be submitted as a single Word document in French or English to Isis Luxenburger and Alisa Preusser (nachwuchsforum [at] gmail.com) no later than October 20, 2023. Submissions should include:

- Project title
- Abstract (250-350 words), outlining the methodology and theoretical approaches chosen as well as the content/body of research
- Short biographical note (max. 250 words), including the applicant’s name; preferred pronouns, if they wish; email address; university affiliation; and research background

Successful applicants will be contacted by the end of October 2023 at the latest.

Accessibility: We are committed to creating a safe and inclusive environment that is accessible to all. Please do not hesitate to communicate with us about your accessibility needs in advance, when sending in your proposal or as they arise, and we will try to accommodate them as best we can.
